

Resume

As a late golf starter, I started my golf journey after my daughter was born. I was fortunate enough to have my business looked after by my wife and brother in law, so I had time to practice my golf games.

As we all know how addictive it is, golf becomes my only hobby and only game that I am willing to work for.

After 10 years, my handicap started dropping to a level (4.5) that I need to progress further for my game.

So Foundation degree of PGA becomes my target, I know that to become pga is my destiny.

After all these years experience as you can see from my history, I definitely developed the service oriented manner and professional attitude which I hope can become your assistance to your proshop, your business.

2023-present: started coaching golf to international students as part time.

2015-present: as a property investor, built the skills as a NVQ level 2 plumber, qualified domestic electrician and fire alarm installer and their routine maintenance, Which is quite handy to maintain my own rental properties.

2017-2018: become self employed consultant for Negotiation and sales, contracted to Nokia global market.

2007-2017: opened my first restaurant in Devon,which was quite successful, the profits kept my game going.

2006: as a coordinator for the project to establish second Chinese business quarter in Royal Albert Dock, negotiating with London Mayor's office (Ken Livingstone)

2003-2005: getting my driver license and married my wife.

2001-2003: branch manager in Lagos Nigeria, representing a Chinese company to import and export products .

1999-2001: graduated from University of Hertfordshire, subject of my degree is the Business Strategy in administration.
