PERSONAL PROFILE

Passionate and dedicated golfer with a current handicap of 9 and competitive playing experience across multiple championships. Having progressed from an 18 to a 9 handicap within two years through consistent practice and commitment, I have developed a strong understanding of golf technique, rules, etiquette, and course management. Winner of the inter-championship competition in my province, demonstrating both competitive ability and determination. Friendly, professional, and eager to fully develop a long-term and permanent career within the golf industry while contributing positively to a club environment. Available to work full-time with flexibility to work evenings and weekends as required.
